

Looking to work in Hong Kong or mainland China?

Do you see yourself working in Hong Kong or mainland China with a top tier law firm? Mallesons Stephen Jaques is a full service commercial law firm with offices in Hong Kong, Beijing, London and all the major commercial centres of Australia, with associated offices in Shanghai and Port Moresby. Outside of Australia, our Hong Kong office is one of the top 10 largest Hong Kong law firms (by number of lawyers).

We offer our lawyers and other staff some of the best hands-on training and career support of any law firm in Australia and Asia. Our Hong Kong trainee program offers you comprehensive legal training and the possibility of a secondment to our offices in Australia or mainland China.

Our size doesn't necessarily make us intimidating, aloof or unresponsive. Those outside Mallesons are often surprised to find we're down-to-earth, warm and engaging. Our business is driven by our collective efforts, so we place just as much importance on communication with each other, mentorship and the stuff of everyday life as we do on knowledge and expertise.

If you are interested in working in Hong Kong or mainland China for a top law firm, and would like to find out more about our practice and the possibility of a vacation clerk placement or a graduate/trainee position with us, we invite you to attend an information evening at our Sydney office on Tuesday, 24 October at 6.30pm on Level 18, Governor Macquarie Tower, 1 Farrer Place, Sydney. Representatives of our Hong Kong office, including our Hong Kong recruitment partner, will be there to meet you.

Please register by 18 October with Sara Eddy at +2 9296 3254 (sara.eddy@mallesons.com) or Sam Garner at +2 9296 3579 (sam.garner@mallesons.com) to let us know you are coming. We look forward to seeing you there!

Mallesons was named Regional Law Firm of the Year in International Financial Law Review's (IFLR's) Asian Awards 2006.

The firm was also ranked in the Global 50 (a list of the world's top 50 law firms) by PLC Which Lawyer? Yearbook 2006.

Ranked top 10 (of 410) in the 9th annual National Work/Life Benchmarking Study conducted by Managing Work/Life Balance International.
