

The University of Sydney Chinese Law Student Society

Name of employer:

KPMG

Background of the employer:

KPMG is one of the four world's leading professional services firms. It has a long history of independence, integrity and objectivity in auditing, taxation consultant and advisory services through industry focused, talented professionals who deliver value for the benefit of their clients and communities. With over 100,000 people worldwide, KPMG member firms provide audit, tax and advisory services in around 140 countries and in Australia, the firm operates nationally across 14 offices with over 300 partners and 4,000 people.

In response to an ever-changing and increasingly complex business environment, the firm continually invests in people, services and quality processes. The firm's professionals are focused on the research and development of services to help our clients achieve sustainable and strong business performance.

KPMG is also committed to appropriately delivering on our capital markets responsibilities, as well as assisting our clients in effectively communicating true business performance to stakeholders.

Position(s) of the clerk being interviewed:

Tax preparer

Job description:

Prepare tax returns for international clients residing in Australia or Australian clients residing overseas.

Interview tips:

Don't be afraid to talk and be yourself. Always smile. Research about the background of the company you're applying for. Take your time to answer questions – its better to take a moment and deliver a good response, than to rush in and not know what you are trying to say.